Flares Checked, No Trace Found

HALIFAX (UPI)—The U.S. Coast Guard cutter Campbell found no trace of the missing Danish vessel Hans Hedtoft or her 95 passengers in a search last night of an area south of Greenland where flares were reported a few hours earlier.

The Campbell radioed "no radar or visual contact with anything."

Report of flares, made by the crew of a U.S. Navy search plane, came at the end of the fifth day of an air-surface hunt for the passenger-cargo liner which struck an iceberg last Friday 37 miles off the southern tip of Greenland and radiod she was sinking fast.

The navy searchers also sighted what may have been flickering lights on the sea. But nothing was found.

COPENHAGEN (AP)—All members of Denmark's parliament rose in silence for two minutes Tuesday in commemoration of the 95 people aboard the passenger-cargo liner Hans Hedtoft.

Gustav Pedersen, chairman of the parliament, said there was "still a faint hope" of finding survivors, but "the desperation felt by many is understandable."

Teen Idols Die

Rock 'n' roll singers Ritchie Valens, 17, above; Buddy Holly, 22, and J. P. (Big Bopper) Richardson, 26, and the pilot died yesterday when their chartered plane crashed shortly after leaving Mason City, Iowa. Biggest hits of the trio were "Donna" by Valens, "Peggy Sue" by Holly and "Chantilly Lace" by Richardson.

Homer Easier Than Home Negro Ball Star Finds

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former baseball star Jackie Robinson said that after he broke the color line in baseball he found it was easier to get a home run than a home in New York. He told the federal civil rights commission that owners and agents put him and his wife through the "usual bag of tricks" when they were searching for housing.

Treasures Back Home

WARSAW (UPI)—Poland's historic art treasures returned home yesterday.

They were shipped last month from Ottawa, where they had been stored in a bank vault since they were spirited from Poland two days after Hitler's forces invaded in 1939.

The bulk of the Polish treasures, however, is still held in Quebec City.

Edgelow Answers Sammon

Matter of Minutes Fixed in Minutes

In just a matter of minutes yesterday, Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow, chairman of the Greater Victoria Celebrations Association, straightened out the matter of "minutes."

And also the matter of the association secretary, Mrs. Ethel Bishop, and her terms of employment.

Questions were raised concerning the celebrations association by Coun. G. K. Sammon at Monday night's Esquimalt council meeting.

He wondered why council's representative on the association, Coun. Edward DeCosta, had to make a verbal report of the association's recent meeting.

"It just doesn't add up that there are no minutes available," he said, "when the group has a full-time paid secretary and there's only one celebration a year."

"Mrs. Bishop is not a full-time paid secretary," Ald. Edgelow said. "She is only paid for March, April and May, plus a token payment in January and February."

The alderman said Mrs. Bishop is "a fine secretary and does much extra work on her own without extra pay."

The critical remarks "were made by someone who obviously didn't know the facts," he said. "Now they do."
